

2025 ANNUAL REPORT

Strengthening our Community with Support and Care

A Letter From Dave Hawk

Without a doubt, 2025 was a difficult year for a majority of the non-profits in our community. On the income side, many faced reduced Federal Funding, and going without a State Budget for months certainly didn't help. At the same time, demand for the services many Agencies provide increased, sometimes dramatically. Not an encouraging combination of events. And yet, the leadership of virtually all of the non-profits agencies we deal with has remained at their posts, determined to deliver the needed serves their agency provide, no matter the head winds they encounter.

Just about every agency leader I know is totally dedicated to their agency's mission. They breathe it, 365 days a year. These folks are very talented people who could no doubt earn a lot more money doing something else. Instead, they follow their hearts and willingly work tirelessly to deliver services to those in need. I think that is nothing less than inspiring.

And so, the next time you bump into an agency leader, shake their hand and thank them for their service. They truly make our area a better place for all of us to live.

Community and Culture

The Hawk Family Foundation believes that the connection of community members through shared events and cultural experiences is at the heart of the NEPA community. Key areas of support in 2025 included youth sports teams, cultural events and investments in local music and theater leagues.

Education

The Hawk Family Foundation is proud to partner with organizations that open doors to opportunity, stability and self-determination. In 2025, HFF provided funding for early childhood programming as well as scholarships to local universities.

The United Way of Lackawanna, Wayne and Pike counties has partnered with Dolly Parton's Imagination Library to provide books, free of charge, monthly to children ages birth to age 5. Shown here, a Storybook breakfast in April to support The Dolly Parton Imagination Library.

*Spencer Dana from Dalton, PA
GSOM Class of 2029*

The Hawk Family Foundation supports an annual scholarship for a Lackawanna County resident entering the Geisinger Commonwealth School of Medicine. Spencer Dana, GSOM class of 2029 and Dalton, Pennsylvania resident, is this year's recipient. This support helps to attract the brightest students from our region who will hopefully become part of the healthcare workforce in NEPA.

"The impact of this scholarship will echo far beyond my time in medical school, shaping my entire medical career. I can further immerse myself in the training, research and lessons that will benefit each future patient I serve."

The Hawk Family Foundation is dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals and families in Northeastern Pennsylvania through non-profit organizations dedicated to health, human services, education and arts & culture.

Vulnerable Populations

The Hawk Family Foundation is committed to supporting those most impacted by inequality and hardship. Our partnering organizations focus on the dignity, safety and empowerment of our community members. The Hawk Family Foundation was proud to partner with organizations in 2025 that provided support to youths experiencing homelessness, community members experiencing food insecurity and to families in crisis.

The John Malvizzi Foundation partners with local school districts to highlight the importance of prioritizing mental health and asking for help when it's needed. Shown here, students at a Scranton vs. Mid Valley basketball game wore shirts with uplifting messages.

A Letter From Maggie Hawk

Maggie Hawk
*Administrator,
The Hawk Family Foundation*

Dear Friends and Partners,

As we reflect on the past year, I am reminded of why Northeast PA continues to be such a special place to live, work, and raise a family. Our community offers something increasingly rare: a shared commitment to ensuring that the next generation has every opportunity to thrive. For families like mine and many others, NEPA is more than a hometown - it is a place where people look out for one another and invest in the future together.

I am deeply grateful for the collaboration of our many community partners. Local nonprofits continue to show what is possible when we work together with purpose. Our area would not be so supported without this willingness to share ideas and pool resources.

There is no denying that 2025 was a difficult year for nonprofits. Funding cuts at the local, state, and federal levels created challenges. Organizations were forced to do more with less while demand for services continued to grow. In spite of these obstacles, our partners demonstrated resilience and a continued commitment to our community.

Looking towards 2026, I am grateful for the partnerships shared and hopeful for what this year will bring. The challenges of the past year have reinforced the importance of collaboration and strategic investment. We will continue working together to ensure that NEPA remains a place where families can put down roots, children can succeed, and neighbors can count on one another.

Thank you for your partnership.
