4 GENERATIONS OF

Chocolate Making

1936

From a Kitchen in Northeast Pennsylvania

Gertrude Hawk began working in a local candy shop in Scranton, Pennsylvania at the age of 12 in 1915. She left school after her father died young and her mother took ill, leaving Gertrude to support her family. It was in this candy shop that she learned and came to love the art of chocolate making.

1945

An American Dream

When Gertrude's son Elmer returned from serving in World War II he also had a need: to work. Elmer wanted to own his own business. He took business classes at a local college funded by the GI bill and realized the answer to his career-path dilemma was right in front of him: his mother's chocolate business. In 1963, Gertrude and Elmer built their first large-scale manufacturing facility and retail store. Seven additions were made to that facility over the years.

Growth & Innovation

Elmer and David formed a lasting partnership. David's need was a bit different from his father and his grandmother: he needed to grow and innovate. Under David's leadership, Gertrude Hawk Chocolates would expand its geographic footprint out of northeastern Pennsylvania.

2018 Generations of Goodness

In 2018, a new factory opened next to the company's flagship retail store in Dunmore, Pennsylvania. In 2021, David Hawk retired and passed the baton to his children.

We utilize over 150,000 sq. ft. of modern production and distribution space to supply our customers with the products they have grown to love. Our goal is to continue the tradition of bringing delicious chocolate covered happiness to the world for generations to come!
